

	Does Not Meet	Partially Meets	Meets	Exceeds
Historical Research	Incomplete or unattempted	Has fewer than five sources, doesn't directly cite sources in paper, uses incorrect format, gives arguments that are not found in sources.	Student utilizes five or more reliable sources by 1) consulting sources for information, 2) evaluating reliability of sources, 3) using sources in the text of essay or slide show to support the thesis , 4) using proper citation format both in the citation page and in the body of the material.	Meets all requirements for a 3 and depends heavily on sources. Frequently cites sources throughout the body of the work. Sources are thoroughly and accurately integrated into the work.
Clear and Effective Communicator	Incomplete or unattempted	Thesis is unclear, or simply states a fact not requiring argument. Doesn't use intro-body-conclusion format.	Presents a clear and arguable thesis. Uses sources to support thesis. Uses intro-body-conclusion form (whether in essay or presentation).	Thesis and evidence are closely related to each other. Direct quotations are effectively used. Thesis is forcefully argued.
